ARTICLE THIRD
PURPOSES AND POWERS

Section 1 - Purposes.

(a) The New Body Electric School (the "Corporation") is organized and shall be operated for the exclusive purpose of engaging in charitable, educational, religious and scientific activities within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, referred to herein as the "Code"). Specifically, the Corporation offers expertly guided educational experiences grounded in the erotic and its integration with the sacred, to foster transformative personal and communal healing.

Section 2 - Powers.

(a) The Corporation's purposes as herein stated shall be carried out by its Board of Directors in a manner that will enable the Corporation to qualify and continue to qualify as a charitable organization within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Code. To this end the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(i) To own, acquire, convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer upon trust, or otherwise dispose of, all property, real or personal; to borrow money, contract debts, and issue bonds, notes and debentures, and to secure the payment or performance of its obligations.

(ii) To receive property by gift, devise or bequest subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by will, and otherwise to acquire and hold all property, real or personal, including shares of stock, bonds and securities of other corporations.

(iii) To enter into contracts with any person, firm, association, corporation, partnership, municipality, county, state, nation or with any agency of any of the foregoing.

(iv) To perform every act necessary or proper for the accomplishment of the objects and purposes enumerated or for the protection and benefit of the Corporation.

(b) Notwithstanding any powers granted to this Corporation by its Articles of Incorporation, Code of Regulations, or by the laws of the State of Ohio, the following limitations of powers shall apply and be paramount:

(i) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any incorporator, trustee, or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes and except to the extent that benefit inures to persons or entities in accordance with the carrying out of the Corporation's charitable purposes as herein defined), and no trustee, or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the Corporation's assets on dissolution of the Corporation.

(ii) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

(iii) The Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

(iv) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization (a) which is exempt under §501(c)(3) of the Code (b) which is other than a private Corporation within the meaning of §509(a)(1) or §509(a)(2) of the Code, (c) contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) or §2055(a) of the Code, or (d) gifts to which are deductible under §2522(a)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

(v) Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all residual assets of the Corporation to one or more organizations described in §501(c)(3) and §170(c)(2) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any future United States internal revenue law) exclusively for charitable, educational and public purposes. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction exclusively for charitable, educational and public purposes, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for such charitable, educational and public purposes and described in §501(c)(3) and §170(c)(2) of the Code (or corresponding provisions of any future United States internal revenue law) as said court shall determine.
